

Willkommen in Zürich, Schweiz.

We will assist you. Free of charge.

The Zürich Tourism Convention Bureau is your local contact for all matters regarding your event. We accompany you from the initial bidding stage right through to the implementation of your congress, meeting, or event. You benefit from our expertise and network free of charge.

Bidding. We assist you in securing Zurich as the venue for your congress by means of professional destination marketing. We prepare a high-quality bid dossier for you and obtain indicative prices for hotels, venues, and supporting programs.

Sponsoring. Zürich Tourism has set up a fund to provide financial support for international conventions. The allocation of this sponsorship contribution is regulated by the Zürich Tourism Management Board based on various criteria. Please do not hesitate to contact us and we will review your request.

Network. Over the past years, the team at the Convention Bureau has built up a powerful network. Zurich is particularly strong in the life science, ICT, cleantech and finance sectors. We would be pleased to introduce you to our local contacts from the fields of business, science, and politics.

Advice and Assistance. We provide comprehensive advice on the choice of venue, accommodation for participants, or the supporting program. Our partnerships include convention venues, hotels, transportation companies, and professional agencies that specialize in congress organization. We would be delighted to put you in touch with competent contact persons. We will inquire about hotel room allocations on your behalf and manage them if so required.

Finding and Inspecting Suitable Venues. We will draw up a tailor-made offer for you and also arrange a site inspection tour.

Promotional Material. We provide you with high-quality images, videos, brochures, and city maps relating to Zurich. At the convention itself, on request we can support you with a tourist information stand and offer delegates discounted city tours and Swiss chocolate as a give-away.

Zurich Stands for Quality and Sustainability. We work very closely with local businesses that meet strict quality criteria. The Zürich Tourism Convention Bureau has created an online tool on the theme of sustainable event planning. Further information can be found here: Sustainable Events in Zurich.
